LINDA NESVISKY

POSTCARDS FROM THE OLD CITY: AN ELEGY

Jerusalem, 1974 - 1991

Linda resided in the Old City during the rebirth of its Jewish Quarter.

Residents expelled in 1948 were returning to live in renovated historical homes and archeologists were uncovering history as far back as the Bronze Age. Artists and writers were attracted to the Jewish Quarter, as well, for the exotic setting: the massive walls and gates, the human tapestry of its residents. Artists, writers, the religious and the secular, lived in harmony.

Opening: Sunday April 2, 3:00pm – 5:00pm

Program: 4:00pm - The artist will speak

Free and open to the community

An accessible facility, groups welcome by appointment
